

Dear Brethren,

Greetings in the name of the Lord! I heard a report that a good brother was made to dance before the Lord the other day upon the hearing of "Cast Your Cares"!.. O how I rejoice to know that these poor songs (though rich in Spirit) are being used to even one man's edification! After hearing this, I remembered sister Liynaa's hymn from a couple of years ago, "Ye Christian Soldiers"... I remember when I first read it, I was so filled with the Spirit that I couldn't help but sing! Truly, the anointing oil of heaven is upon it and it is still a necessary word to us to this day... May we be edified more and more in the grace of God unto abounding charity, holiness, sobriety, fear and watchfulness.

Here is portion of my email at that time:

"The Lord compelled me to record this this morning, and gave a measure of grace, thus I wanted to send it to you all... It is Liynaa's poem she sent out (via text) a couple days ago. I play it to a tune for "Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken"... I'm not sure where the tune came from, but it is sure a blessing to my soul...

(I've titled it, "Ye Christian Soldiers", and have used the second verse for a refrain, and the last verse for a bridge...)

May you all be blessed and edified to continue fighting the good fight of faith. Lay hold on eternal life!

Yours,
Jake"

*Rise then now, ye Christian soldiers,
Onward to the bloody fray;
Arm thyself with his own armor,
Onward to the battle day!*

*March along, ye Christian soldiers,
Girded all with truth about,
Satan's kingdom round you crumbling,
At the echo of thy shout.*

*Rank and file, ye Christian soldiers,
Climb the wall like men of war;
Neither shall one thrust another,
Nor be killed by Satan's sword.*

*Conquer on, ye Christian soldiers,
Till the whole earth be subdued:
Sin be vanquished, Satan bounded,
Under our Great King's footstool!*
