

Dear Holy Brethren,

For those of you who may have completed all the reading assignments which have been sent, here is the next one. I do not plan on preaching the things contained in this Chapter (Chapter #4), so you do not need to read it in preparation for the meeting this evening. I intend to preach on the content from Chapter #3.

I love you in the bowels of Jesus Christ, the Living One who has risen from the dead.

- Brother Sean
